Organization

Govt. Polytechnic College Bathinda was established in 1985 with the aim of providing high quality education in engineering and technology through close interaction with industries. Initially in 1985, the students were admitted as guest students at Govt. Polytechnic College, Hoshiarpur. The classes at this Bathinda college campus were started in the year 1986. The college is situated at Bibiwala Road and is adjacent to Bathinda cantonment. It is located in a well spread out & meticulously planned campus of 22 acres with lush green surroundings.

The focus of the college in addition to imparting technical education to the students in his/her trade is the following:-

To make available technical manpower to the industry as per their requirements. Students are also trained for self employment & entrepreneurship. Special emphasis is laid on overall personality development of the students by encouraging them to participate in extra curricular activities & other competitions.
